BIBLE INSTITUTE BEGINS TODAY AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Interesting Sermon Preached
Last Night at First Baptist
by Dr. Mahony.

Sermons to be Preached Every Night This Week.

THE PROGRAM FOR TOMORROW

To a crowded house the Bible Institute began last night at the First Baptist church with an interesting sermon on "The Little Gospel," by the Rev. W. J. Mahoney. Services were held this morning, as well as this afternoon. This evening there will be services. This program will be carried out until Friday night, when the institute will close. The program was arranged by the pastor, the Rev. M. E. Dodd, who has secured some of the best speakers in the state.

Great interest in the services is expected all week. The Rev. C. M. Thompson, formerly pastor of the church, editor of the Western Record at Louisville, will deliver several addresses. This morning the following pastors, who are on the program for addresses had arrived: W. J. Mahoney, M. E. Staley, of Fulton, W. C. Taylor, of Arlington; J. M. Burgess, of Blandville; J. R. Stewart, of Lone Oak; Ed Ransett, of Blandville, and W. L. Sullivan, of Clinton.

All of the speakers have promised to attend the institute and keep all of the engagements.

The Session Begins.

The regular work of the institute commenced this morning at 10 o'clock with devotional led by the Rev. W. S. Taylor. This was followed by "The Teaching Function of a Church," by the secretary, W. J. Mahoney. At 11:15 the Rev. M. E. Staley spoke on "Won by One."

At 2 o'clock the Rev. T. B. Rouse led the devotional. At 2:15 W. D. Powell, D. D., spoke on "The Mission of a New Testament Church." At 3 o'clock the Rev. T. B. Taylor spoke on "Our Christian and American Sabbath."

HOTEL MEN MAY COME TO THIS CITY FOR MEETING.

Mr. R. E. Moshell, proprietor of Hotel Belvedere and third vice-president of the hotel association of the state, will leave tonight for Frankfort to attend a meeting of the executive board of the association. The board will name the city and set the time for the annual convention this year, which will be held in a few months. The convention last year was to be held at Dawson, but owing to changes some other city will be named. Mr. Moshell hopes to land the convention for Paducah this year.

EARTHQUAKE NOT LOCATED YET— FELT IN RUSSIA

St. Petersburg, Jan. 25.—Although all reports from the various observatories in Russia locate the earthquake, the shocks of which were recorded yesterday, somewhere on the Russian side of Pamirs, Turkestan, no direct news has been received that would serve to fix the disturbance in any definite place. A dispatch from Borschom, in Transcaucasia, reports the registering there by the seismographs instruments of a distant earthquake.

Russian Turkestan in the region indicated is sparsely settled, and details of an earthquake there would be very slow in reaching St. Petersburg. The first direct reports from the scene of the great earthquake at Karatagh, Russian Turkestan, in October, 1907, were not received here until three weeks after its occurrence. In that earthquake about 15,000 persons were killed.

TWO ARE LYNCHED IN ALABAMA WHEN MOBS CATCH THEM

Tusculum, Ala., Jan. 25.—Sam Davenport, a negro, was hanged by a mob at Leighton, ten miles east of Tusculum last evening about dark. It having been shown that he applied the torch to the barn of John A. Galbraith, a prominent citizen of Leighton, Friday night, resulting in the destruction of the building, sixteen head of horses and mules and a large quantity of feed stuff, entailing a loss of more than $5,000.

Assault Lynched.

Scottsboro, Ala., Jan. 25.—The negro who attempted to assault the daughter of James Ridley, of Bolivar, last night was lynched last night.

A large barn together with a lot of live stock and feed stuff of ex-Tax Collector Ridley was set on fire and burned last night by a discharged negro man servant. While the barn was burning and the men were at the fire the negro entered the residence and attempted to assault a young married daughter of Mr. Ridley.

REPUBLIC SINKS IN FORTY-FIVE FATHOMS OF WATER—PASSENGERS ALL TAKEN OFF

New York, Jan. 25.—The White Star liner, Baltic, with passengers of the Republic aboard, reached quarantine. The Florida, damaged, is in the convoy of the American liner, New York, near Sandy Hook. The Republic sank last night in 45 fathoms. Captain Sealby was taken off just before she sank.

Woods Hole, Mass., Jan. 25.—Captain Sealby and fifty members of the crew of the Republic were taken off by the cutter Gresham and transferred to Seneca today. They are on their way to New York.

REPUBLIC SINKS.

CHIEF TALKS OF LID.

"Next Sunday I believe I will close up everything, including cigar stands, soda water fountains and every line of business, except perishable goods, as prescribed by law," said Chief Collins this morning. Yesterday Chief Collins inaugurated a crusade on the grocers keeping open on the Sabbath, and the police were given instructions to watch all the stores. As a result two stores were found open and warrants issued. The clamping down of the lid on the grocers has started a howl, and the grocery dealers are pointing out that the cigar stands and drug stores in the business districts are allowed to sell everything on Sunday, and the grocery dealers think they should have the same privilege. As a result of the dissatisfaction, Chief Collins is considering the advisability of putting the lid on good and tight and allowing only perishable goods sold on Sunday.

May Quarantine Cairo

A quarantine may be declared by Paducah against Cairo, from which town smallpox is being carried into Kentucky. This morning a negro preacher and his family on South Fifth street was moved to the pest house. The preacher had been to Cairo. He took the disease and returned home, spreading it among the members of his family. Also another negro was found with a well developed case of smallpox, who said that he had come from Cairo.

WHO HAS CONTROL OF MARKET HOUSE VEXING QUESTION

George Walters and Board of Public Works Both Assert Their Authority.

Two Licenses Granted For Same Stall.

IS UP TO CITY SOLICITOR

Another interesting question, resulting from the multiplicity of tax collectors and other officers in the city hall, has arisen to vex the legal department. This time it involves the market house.

Gus Singleton had been leasing a bench, but it seems that Albert Sapirillo was occupying it with fruit. It has been the custom of the board, when a vacancy occurred, to lease the bench to the first applicant, providing that applicant is desirable. Preference is always given to bona fide gardeners, as it is understood the house was erected for vegetable and meat dealers, and not fruit dealers. When Mr. Singleton made no application to renew his license, the board considered his bench vacant and referred to the list. The first name was that of a Graves county man, who sells his produce to hucksters. The board passed on to the next, D. H. Mitcheson, who happened to be a colored gardener of this county. The board voted to lease the bench to him, and his wife paid the $12.50 for six months' license to City Treasurer Dorian. She took the receipt to City Clerk Maurice McIntyre, who refused to recognize Treasurer Dorian's receipt.

Then it developed that George W. Walters had received $12.50 from Albert Sapirillo and given him a receipt, and that City Clerk McIntyre had issued him a license in his own name without consulting the board of public works. All this was unknown to the members of the board of public works, who simply were aware that Singleton had not applied for his license.

Walters said Sapirillo told him he had been occupying a bench, and when asked in whose name he would have the license said he didn't care.

Marketmaster Clark, recognizing the authority of the board of public works, attempted to evict Sapirillo, who had taken possession, and asked Police Judge Cross for a warrant, when Sapirillo disobeyed him. Judge Cross said he knew of no police regulation that Sapirillo was violating and declined to issue any warrant until he could be shown the law for it.

Missouri Contest

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 25.—Speaker Spear said this morning he feared the legislature would be forced to settle the lieutenant governorship dispute. He fears the committee will be unable to settle the matter alone, leaving the legislature the task merely of approving the report.

Cooper Case

Nashville, Jan. 25.—The court room was crowded today when Judge Hart called the Cooper case to continue the arguments dropped Saturday because of his illness. McCann began reading affidavits to support his contention that Leigh should be withdrawn as juror.

IN SACRED CAVES OF BUDDHISTS IN SEARCH OF FACTS

London, Jan. 25.—M. A. Stein, leader of the Indian government mission to Central Asia, has arrived in London after three years' travel of 10,000 miles through some of the wildest and bleakest regions of the earth. Speaking of his experience in the Takla Makan desert on the ancient Chinese trade route, Mr. Stein says:

"Traces of ancient river beds marked probably by dead trees, often gave striking proof of the desiccation, which had overtaken the whole region. We found implements of the stone age in a region far from any water, fresh or salt.

"In the desert between the salt marshes of Lob Nor and the Tung Huang oasis, we traced for over 300 miles the remains of the ancient frontier wall which was constructed at the end of the second century by the Chinese to protect the newly opened route westward when China was making an effort to extend her power trade to Western Asia.

"Documents in wood and bamboo from about 100 B. C. to 50 A. D., when this defensive line seems to have been abandoned, were excavated in hundreds.

"One of the most profitable finds was in the exploration of what proved to be a treasure cave, which was literally crammed with ancient manuscripts, paintings and other Buddhist remains. These had been deposited and hermetically sealed up in a side chapel of one of the great Buddhist sacred caves. The number of manuscripts exceeds 4,000, which, so far as can be told, are in about seven languages."

CHARLES BURCH

DIES THIS MORNING SHORTLY AFTER 10 O'CLOCK.

Gracey Self, Young Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Self, Passes Away.

Mr. Charles H. Burch, 57 years old, died this morning at 10 o'clock at his home, 1025 South Tenth street, of consumption. Mr. Burch had been ill for 18 months. His first illness was pneumonia and it afterward developed into consumption. He had been a resident of this city 17 years and until two years ago was employed at the Illinois Central railroad shops as car repairer. Mr. Burch was born and reared in Union county near Morganfield and lived at that place until coming to this city. He was a devout member of the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church and a member of America. Mr. Burch was well known and he had a large number of friends. His death was not unexpected. His many friends and own family knew of his poor health for several weeks and twice last week he was thought to be dead, but revived.

Mr. Burch is survived by his wife, Mrs. Katherine Burch, and nine children: Mr. William Burch and Mrs. John Vickery, of Albuquerque, N. M., and Mrs. Joseph Wurtz, Miss Katherine Burch and Messrs. Frank, Roland, Joseph, Leo and James Burch, all of this city. He leaves three sisters: Mrs. L. Luckett, of Morganfield; Mrs. Ella Able, of Uniontown; Mrs. Belle Fenwick, of Henderson, and one brother, Mr. Tom Burch, of Pine Bluff, Ark. Mrs. Kate Burch, of 1111 Monroe street, is an aunt and Mr. William Burch, an Illinois Central railroad engineer, is a cousin.

The funeral will be held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Francis de Sales church. The funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Father H. W. Jansen, pastor of the Catholic church. The burial will be at Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Gracey Self.

Miss Gracey Self, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Self, of O'Brien's addition, died Saturday night at her home after a two weeks' illness of pneumonia. The body was taken to Murray yesterday afternoon for burial.

His Arm Dislocated.

Maxon Mills, Jan. 25.—(Special.)—While moving lumber Saturday afternoon Mr. John Prince dislocated his left arm. The injury is not a serious one.

WIFE OF PLANTER OBJECTS TO WILL OF HIS DEATH BED

Made Under Most Peculiar Circumstances and Deemed Not Valid.

County Judge of Calloway Buys Blood Hounds.

LITTLE BOY BREAKS HIS JAW

Murray, Ky., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Exceptions to the probate of the will left by Eli Alexander, a wealthy planter who died January 16, were entered this morning when the document was filed for probate in county court today. The petition was filed by S. H. Dees and P. C. Allen as next friends of Mrs. Ella Alexander, wife of the decedent, who objects to the probate of the instrument because it is considered unfair to herself and to some of her children. Alexander left an estate valued at $30,000.

The will that he left was made under most peculiar circumstances, according to those who witnessed the transaction, and has been the subject of much comment here. Alexander was declared to be in a dying condition and his family was summoned to attend his bedside during his last moments. When his wife entered the room she screamed and the sound of her voice caused the sick man to awaken from his seeming stupor and he arose in the bed and called for some one to write his will. A local attorney, who was present, began to write as dictated, and after the instrument was signed, Mr. Alexander again lapsed into unconsciousness, but lived until the following day.

Friends of the wife have raised the point since his death that Mr. Alexander was not mentally capable of making a will under the circumstances existing at the time it was written.

County Buys Bloodhounds.

A pair of trained Siberian bloodhounds have been purchased for the county by Judge Thomas Patterson from a kennel owner at Dyersburg, Tenn. The hounds will be sent here this week for a thorough test, as an iron-bound contract was entered into that the dogs should give satisfaction.

The animals will be used to run down incendiaries, night riders and all kinds of criminals. They will be owned by the county and will be kept at Murray.

Craig Karr Falls.

Craig, 10-year-old son of J. C. Karr, who recently moved here from Paducah, fell down a flight of stairs Saturday and broke his jaw-bone. Physicians reduced the fracture and the boy will recover.

Another serious accident happened Saturday when William Overby's hand was crushed while rolling logs, so that amputation probably will be necessary.

The N. C. & St. L. railroad has purchased several acres of gravel land, adjoining the pit near the Murray station. This is said to be the finest gravel in the world and when placed on streets or roadbeds the surface cements and forms a road that is said to be almost equal to asphalt.

Root Resigns

Washington, Jan. 25.—The president today received the resignation of Secretary Root to take effect as soon as his successor is qualified. The nomination of Assistant Secretary Bacon for secretary of state was sent to the senate.

BURGLARS BREAK INTO STORE ROOM; BACK DOOR SHAKEN

Lone Oak, Jan. 25.—(Special.)—An attempt to break into the general store of Mrs. A. M. Sanderson was averted early Sunday morning when an unknown white man was prizing at the rear door. Mr. Ivan Merritt, who resides next door, heard the noise and he awakened Mr. Richard Watkins. Together with their shotguns they stole out and ran the burglar around the house. The man ran, but while climbing a fence both fired their shotguns at the burglar. There was a scream, but he did not stop running and in the dark escaped. He was tracked through the field and drops of blood proved that the burglar did not miss their victim. Nothing was secured from the store. The burglar was described as a heavy man and he wore overshoes.

Policeman's Home Visited.

Policemen are not exempt from visits by burglars. Last night at the home of Patrolman W. M. Owen, of Tenth and Ohio streets, the third attempt was made to enter the house this month. The burglar's calls are unusually early. While alone last night about 7 o'clock Mrs. Owen heard a noise at the rear door, and no response was given to her inquiry as to whom it was. A telephone call was sent to relatives, and the burglar took the hint and departed. He was tracked from where he jumped over the fence to the back porch, and then his tracks led to the street.

POWER MONOPOLY GRANTED BY BILL OF CONGRESSMAN

Washington, Jan. 25.—Speaker Whalen, of the Michigan legislature, and a number of other prominent men from Michigan, filed a formal protest with the president, saying the bill introduced by Representative Lorimer evidently is intended to conserve the water supply, but in reality grants a monopoly to the Michigan and Lake Superior Power company of an enormous water power at "Boo." The company is owned by the Wall street interests.

ANIMAL MAGNETISM.

BRAIN HELD BULLET

FOURTEEN DAYS BEFORE CAUSING YOUNG LADY'S DEATH.

Miss Laffoon, who was accidentally shot by a bullet from a Madisonville, Ky. Passer Aways.

After suffering for thirteen days with a bullet in her brain, Miss Laffoon, aged 21 years, who was wounded on Sunday morning, January 10, died at 7:45 o'clock Friday morning at the residence of her father, Mr. Laffoon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. O'Bryan, with whom she made her home.

The wounding of Miss Laffoon, which was the result of an accident, was one of the most deplorable occurrences that has ever happened in the city. The firing of the shot that resulted in the death of the young woman remained a mystery until Thursday, when Frank Carter, a small boy, in a confession to his mother, admitted he fired the shot, but did not see her at the time and had no knowledge of Miss Laffoon being near until he saw her fall. ## PLENTY OF MONEY FOR GOOD THINGS

Henry Clews Has Confidence in the Future.

Indiscreet Buying of Stocks Has Been Discouraged by Conservatives.

JANUARY TRADE PROVES DULL

The event of the week has been the successful placing of London subscription to the new Russian loan, the balance of which will shortly be offered in Paris. This removes an uncertainty which has long been held over the foreign money markets. Preparations for the loan have been made months in advance; hence the slight effect upon the world's money market. Since Paris has been accumulating part of its immense stock of gold to finance this loan, it remains to be seen whether the Bank of France will continue to draw gold or whether it will cease its efforts in this direction. The international gold movements will be watched with considerable interest the next few weeks.

Just now our own money market is being subjected to a number of unusual demands. Gold has recently been exported to about $7,000,000, and the current movement is expected to reach $25,000,000 to $30,000,000. The trust companies will shortly be obliged to withdraw $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 before February 1 to comply with requirements of the reserve law. Much of this will probably be provided for in advance; nevertheless considerable sums must be temporarily withdrawn from the money market in such an operation. Again, the government deficit necessitates the withdrawal of public deposits from the banks, and about $15,000,000 will be surrendered on January 23, also another $10,000,000 on February 10. If to these requirements we add the obligations incurred by recent heavy bond issues, it will be found that the demands upon the local money market have been unusually heavy. The offerings of the $250,000,000 Russian, the $30,000,000 Canadian loan and other foreign issues show that the demands upon capital abroad are also on an extensive scale. So far as the banking situation at home is concerned there is not the slightest cause for concern. Our banks are exceedingly strong, and the great expansion in loans which has taken place during the last few months is shown to be amply protected by the large increase in resources. Owing partly to the quietness in business and partly to the expansion of our currency, our banks are almost surfeited with idle money.

The Cause.

The causes for this state of affairs are not satisfactory, and it would be pleasing to see trade more active and our currency contracting at a time when it is not needed. Yet there is reason for confidence in the general strength and soundness of the banking situation. For all legitimate enterprises there is an abundance of money, which will eventually be a powerful stimulant towards recovery. Funds are returning freely from the interior, and we can readily spare gold to Europe if needed. Indeed, some of our bankers would gladly see an efflux of more liberal proportions provided it resulted in slightly stiffening interest rates. But much depends in this respect on the course of events in Paris, where the urgency for accumulating gold will probably disappear or moderate now that the Russian loan is out of the way. Much too depends on the policy of the Bank of England, which has been anxious to strengthen its reserves and may now find it more easy to do so. At best the outlook for money in the foreign money markets is uncertain, and the tone of financial affairs over there is one of decided conservatism if not of depression.

Bullishness of Trade.

A most unsatisfactory feature at the moment is the universal dullness of trade. January is proving a decided disappointment in this respect and the volume of business will unquestionably be considerably below that of December. The iron trade is exceedingly quiet, and not employed to more than half of its capacity. Railroads have ceased placing orders in expectation of securing further concessions in values. Railroad traffic returns, moreover, are not satisfactory, as shown by the continued large number of unemployed cars. Tariff agitation is also a deterrent upon business, much more so than deserved, but there are many who hesitate about making future commitments so long as there is uncertainty in this respect. It carries

MAKES HIS OWN HAIR TONIC AND SAVES MONEY.

The average man when he pays 15c for one application for a hair tonic thinks he is paying a pretty good price, but nevertheless the barber isn't making as much money as his customer supposes. The ready-to-use quinine hair tonics of real merit are expensive preparations costing $1.00 and $1.50 for small bottles. But there is one progressive barber who has found a way to satisfy his customers and more than "break even" on the use of a quinine hair tonic. He makes it himself, using only one ounce of Beta Quinol and half a pint of alcohol and half a pint of water. This gives him a genuine and excellent quinine hair tonic for about one-third the usual cost. His own preparation pleases his customers better than the higher-priced tonics he formerly used. There is nothing better than Beta Quinol for the hair, for it keeps the scalp in a clean and healthy condition, removes dandruff and makes the hair soft and luxuriant. This home-made Beta Quinol hair tonic has stopped falling hair on many of the barber's patrons. He has given his recipe to several of them and his customers are now making the tonic themselves. The materials can be procured at any drug store. Simply shake them well together and they are ready to use.

Try This for Your Stomach.

Get from your druggist one ounce Compound Tincture of Cinchona, one ounce Prosepe Compound and half a pint of sherry wine; mix these in a bottle and take a teaspoonful before meals and at bedtime in a little water. It is claimed that this simple mixture will cure sour stomach, belching gas and indigestion.

Little weight with many that no tariff changes are possible within six months and perhaps even twelve months; or that the tariff will be revised by his friends and at a time when our industries have never so little in need of protection. Some of our industries have been so over-colded for years that the mere suggestion of the withdrawal of support causes a shiver. Time, however, will show that no injurious changes will be made and that an ample period will be given for readjustment. With the 4th of March a new administration comes in, and Mr. Taft will undoubtedly call a special session of congress to consider tariff changes. Discussion may easily last until June or July, and new tariff acts do not usually go into effect until six months after passage. Judging by developments at recent tariff hearings a stiff fight will be made against injurious reductions, and because of weak Democratic opposition such efforts are likely to succeed. Nevertheless, in the eyes of many it will be a period of uncertainty and postponement, and right or wrong, such ideas will temporarily govern. Meanwhile, some of our largest industrial concerns dependent on the tariff are going along accepting all the orders they can secure without regard to tariff possibilities. It is also significant that importers' shelves are unusually bare of supplies; and large imports are expected in spite of possibly lower duties.

The brightest spot in business at present is in cotton goods, for which there has been a good demand, especially from the interior. The prevailing indications, however, are for a period of quiet and readjustment in general business which may last until the tariff is settled, or some idea is obtainable regarding the next harvest. Operations on the stock exchange dwindled down to one-half their usual volume. Many big operators absented themselves from the "street" and the investment demand suddenly subsided; new bond issues going much more slowly than two weeks ago. There is danger of congestion in the latter respect, the new issues since January 1 having been out of all proportion to capacity of the investment demand. Some time will be required for the absorption of new issues, not only in New York, but in London, Paris and Frankfurt, where the recovery has not been so violent as in the United States. Foreign financial markets, it should be borne in mind, have strengthened themselves at our expense by a much larger return of our securities than has been generally appreciated.

The Ruling Passion.

The father of a family, all of whom were devotees of bridge and much given to talking the game and holding post-mortems over badly played hands died rather suddenly. There was a difference of opinion as to whether he should be buried in the family plot or cremated. In the course of the discussion the mother said weepingly to her son: "John, what do you think?" "I leave it to you, mother." "I make it spades," was her reply. —Success Magazine.

News of Theatres

"The Smart Set."

"The Smart Set," the peer of all theatrical colored organizations, has a new offering this season. It is in reality a comedy-drama with music and entitled "The Back Politician," or "The Mayor of Marco," and will be the next attraction at The Kentucky.

"A Knight for a Day."

The performance of "A Knight for a Day" is a snappy, brisk, rushing one. Gus Schike's touch is seen in every movement of principals and chorus. Everybody and everything rushes and scampers from start to finish. Little girls work vigorously while tall girls from varicolored backgrounds and at the close of each act is some new electric effect that rouses the audience to unqualified enthusiasm.

Jeffersons in "The Rivals."

The name of Jefferson and the fame of Richard Brinsley Sheridan's fine old classical comedy, "The Rivals," are inseparably linked together. William W., internationally famous as "Bob Acres," is warmer hearted and more charmingly vain and swaggery than even the author could wish; and Joseph, as "Sir Lucius O'Trigger," is repeating the success his impersonations won years ago when he succeeded the late W. J. Florence. The Jeffersons and "The Rivals" come to The Kentucky soon.

"A Merry New York Maid."

Robert Garnella, May Shirk, Elsie Edna Garnella, Frank Forrest, Jack Stockton, Walter Edson and a first-class company, will appear at The Kentucky Friday in "A Merry New York Maid." The production has been made carefully, and the piece bears the evidence of the work that has been spent on it. The entire production is staged by Mr. Max Oberdorfer, of the Metropolitan theater, New York, making the piece as nearly perfect as possible.

"During this proceeding the little girl's older brother opened the door and was about to enter. But in her prone position across her mother's knee the little girl twisted her head and said, severely: "Eddie, go out! Can't you see we're busy!" —Washington Star.

Quaint. Prof. Brander Matthews, the brilliant writer and teacher, was discussing literary quaintness at Columbia. In illustration of the quaint he said: "A little girl I know was very bad one day. She was so bad that, other corrections failing, her mother took her to her room to whip her."

Tobacco is unloaded in large, flat baskets, each grade to itself, weighed and receipt given owner, showing number of draft and pounds thereof. A corresponding ticket is placed on each pile. The highest bid is written on ticket and, should owner accept same, by presenting at office receipt previously given, the cash is handed over.

Should the bid offered not be satisfactory, the tobacco can be offered the next day or at any other time thereafter.

It costs absolutely nothing to offer your tobacco unless bid is accepted, in which case we charge 15 cents per hundred pounds and 2 cents on the dollar.

The greatest demand among manufacturers and dealers is for loose tobacco and, since it will bring more money offered loose, why go to the expense of having prized, stored, insured, inspected and looked after?

You will get more money for your tobacco when offered to the highest bidder in open competition with twenty-five buyers trying to buy than when you expect or require one buyer to buy millions of pounds without competition at a round price.

WRECK OF THE MAINE A MENACE

Shipping in Havana Harbor Suffering.

Removal Recommended by Gov. Magoon in Annual Report—Hated Raising Would Disclose

MINE DID NOT DESTROY IT.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Governor Magoon, of the Provisional Government of Cuba, in his annual report to the secretary of war, made public today brings to his attention the wreck of the United States battleship Maine in Havana harbor and recommends that the government take immediate steps to accomplish its removal without further delay. He says:

Menace to Shipping.
"The wreck of the Maine continues to lie in the mud and waters of Havana harbor. The sunken battleship is a serious menace to the shipping of the harbor as it occupies a portion of the best anchorage. The obstruction has increased annually during the past ten years by raising a shoal. The moderate tides prevailing in the harbor are hardly sufficient to prevent a gradual filling up and this shoal seriously interferes with the action of the tides and, therefore, this entire harbor is rapidly filling. It will be necessary, in a short time, to begin dredging in order to provide proper anchorage for the large amount of shipping now entering the harbor unless the wreck is removed. The anchorage is also restricted by the wreck and the shoal, for ships are obliged to anchor at sufficient distance to prevent grounding in case they strain on their cables.

Abandoned and Forgotten.
"Even more important than this obstruction to navigation is the fact that this wreck, although it contains the bodies of sixty-three American seamen, or what is left of them, is apparently abandoned and forgotten by the government and people of the United States. Thousands of Americans and other thousands of other nationalities annually enter the harbor of Havana and probably not one omits to express regret and exclaim for the deplorable spectacle. It has become a natural approach and an international scandal.

May Disclose Mistake.
"The neglect to remove the wreck is attributed by many, especially the large Spanish contingent in Cuba, to the fear that its removal will disclose the fallacy of the popular belief that the Maine was destroyed by a torpedo or mine instead of an interior explosion; so generally does this opinion prevail that I believe the Cuban government was deterred thereby from dealing with the wreck as an obstruction to navigation of its coastal waters and destroying it; however, it should be added that the Cuban authorities were also restrained by a belief that the United States would some time desire and attempt to remove it and preserve the wreck as a whole instead of breaking it up and removing it in the more inexpensive manner.

Cuba Would Help.
"The correspondence on file in the department of state and the navy department at Washington shows that a belief prevails in those departments that it is necessary to secure by a treaty or otherwise, the consent of the republic of Cuba to the authorities of the United States entering the harbor of Havana and proceeding with the work of removal; this permission, if necessary, can be readily secured, and the Cuban government would gladly afford every assistance in its power to accomplish the desired result, not only because of

A LIBERAL OFFER.

W. B. McPherson Guarantees to Cure Dyspepsia—If They Fail the Medicine Costs Nothing.

To unquestionably prove to the people of Paducah that indigestion and dyspepsia is curable and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will effect the cure, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give complete satisfaction to anyone giving it a trial.

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is largely due to the use of the new and successful method of manufacture, whereby the well known properties of Bismuth, Subnitrate and Pepsin have been combined with carminatives and their agents.

Bismuth Subnitrate and Pepsin are recognized by the entire medical profession as specifics for acute indigestion and dyspepsia.

The Pepsin used in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is manufactured by a new process which develops its greatest efficiency. Pepsin supplies to the digestive apparatus one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid, and exerts a tonic influence upon all the glands which supply all the other elements necessary to proper assimilation and digestion.

The carminatives add properties which promptly relieve the disturbances and pain caused by indigestion and dyspepsia.

The perfect combination of these ingredients make a remedy absolutely incomparable and invaluable for the complete cure of indigestion and dyspepsia.

We are so positively certain of this that we will guarantee that if they will either cure you or cost you nothing. Three sizes, 25c, 45c and 85c.—W. B. McPherson, Paducah.

The injury to the harbor facilities but patriotism and sentiment. I earnestly recommend that the United States government take immediate steps to accomplish the removal without further delay.

The Illusion of Night.
I sometimes fancy that every great city must have been built by night. At least, it is only at night that every part of a great city is great. All architecture is great architecture after sunset; perhaps architecture is ready a nocturnal art, like the art of fireworks. At least, I think many people of those noble trades that work by night (journalists, policemen, burglars, coffee stall keepers and such misnamed enthusiasts as refuse to go home till morning) must often have stood admiring some black bulk of building with a crown of battlements or a crest of spires, and then burst into tears at daybreak to discover that it was only a haberdashery's shop with huge gold letters across the face of it.—G. K. Chesterton in London News.

TELEPHONE MEN AS NIGHT RIDERS

Gang of Linemen Swoop Down and Destroy

Rate War is Raging Between City of Owensboro and Cumberland Company—Independent Company

DIRECTED CUTTING OF WIRES

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 23.—Like night riders, a gang of 25 linemen from Louisville swooped down on the eastern part of Daviess county at 2 o'clock yesterday morning and destroyed 22 miles of lines belonging to the Rural Telephone company, of Owensboro, entailing a loss of $6,000. The work of destroying the lines was done by direction of the Independent Long Distance Telephone and Telegraph company, of Louisville.

The Kentucky and Indiana Telephone company conducts an exchange in Owensboro. Some time ago the Rural Home Telephone company severed connection with the K. and I. company in Daviess county and connected its lines in the county with the Cumberland company. It is alleged that the Independent company notified the Rural company to remove its wires and received a response that it would remove them when the Independent company removed its wires from Rural poles.

The men arrived in Owensboro and drove to the country districts. The manager of the K. and I. company, H. C. Jones, left Owensboro and went to Rockport, Ind., for the purpose, it is understood, of avoiding any process that might be served on him to restrain the men from tearing down the wires. It is alleged that the men received their orders from the general manager, under J. D. Powers, of Louisville, receiver for the Independent.

The entire eastern portion of Daviess county is without telephone service. It is understood that criminal action will be taken against the parties responsible for wrecking the lines.

The city of Owensboro is engaged in a rate war with the Cumberland Telephone company, and recently passed an ordinance requiring the Cumberland to remove poles and wires from the streets. The company secured an injunction in the federal court restraining the city from enforcing the ordinance.

It's easier to make a bluff than it is to get other people to stand for it.

TOBACCO NEWS

Louisville Report.

Louisville, Jan. 23.—Total offerings last week consisted of 4,107 hogsheds. Of this number 2,497 were new burley, 856 old burley, 560 new dark and 194 old dark. With the total offerings last week consisting of 4,107 hogsheds this made an increase of 55 hogsheds.

As usual the American Tobacco company was the most important buyer, having purchased the reported private sales 1,290 hogsheds of new burley. Six hundred and ninety-seven hogsheds of old burley were sampled for the Equity society, while 54 hogsheds of old dark and 28 hogsheds of new dark were sold to various parties. Week before last the American Tobacco company purchased 1,564 hogsheds of the new burley crop at the reported private sales, so with their purchases this week being confined to the purchase of 1,290 hogsheds, this was a falling off of 74 hogsheds.

The quality and condition were good while there was no decrease in the percentage of color. Common smokers and low grade fillers were firm, common and medium red leaf were in good demand, while good and fine red leaf were irregular. Color smokers, strippers, natural leaf fillers and fancy bright grades were a shade higher.

As to the quality of the old burley sampled this week it was fair, this feature being especially noted in her fillers. Better grades of leaf showed higher bids, while other grades were unchanged.

The offerings of the new dark at auction consisted of 532 hogsheds.

Daily Thought.

Optimism is the faith that leads to achievement. Nothing can be done without hope.—Helen Keller.The country is again interested in the Charleston conference.How could Beach Hargis be so careless as to drop the muzzle of his revolver that-a-way."Rom. Salmon, is being urged to run for state senator from the Hopkins-Christian district. Count the Messenger for Rom," says the Bowling Green Messenger.A salmon run is said to be very interesting.In vetoing a bill to grant a perpetual right to a James River power plant, President Roosevelt stated that the present extravagance which wastes the fuel, petroleum and gas supply, so that within a generation water power-produced electricity will be the key to the heating, lighting and transportation situation. He said the country should carefully safeguard its control over water rights.
A combination of interests controlling the water power plants would have the people at its mercy for all time to come.

THE COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL.

County Superintendent Billington's reason for preferring a county high school in the country to an arrangement for the privilege of the Paducah High school is insufficient. It is not important that some father fears to send his child to the wicked city of Paducah to school. It might be important if Professor Billington thinks Paducah an improper place to send children to school. He might find other parents who prefer to send their children to school, where they can find a convenient place to board, pavments to walk on in bad weather, a well equipped school with a competent faculty, the use of a public library, and such other advantages as a city offers over the country for acquiring a well rounded education.We do not believe that Professor Billington thinks the county high school will compare with the Paducah High school in equipment, latitude or general efficiency. It will be no handier for remote residents of the county, than will the Paducah High school. If there is nothing in the way of adopting Judge Lightfoot's proposition to make arrangements for the privilege of the Paducah High school, more than the prejudice of some parent, there isn't much in the way. Professor Billington will find more objection to his High school in the country, we think, if he intends to consult the whims of a majority of the citizens.The best plan for the county is to send the rural graduates to the Paducah High school, at least until there are sufficient pupils to warrant a county High school of standard excellence. It will not be fair to the farmers to heap the special tax on them for a poor quality of school, when they can have the advantages of a better one for one-tenth the cost.It will be better for those country youths to come to the city to get their education. It will be better for the city youths to have the country boys and girls among them. Theywill grow up to understand one another better.

NAVAL GRAFT.

In an article on the navy in the January McClure's, George Kibbe
Turner says: "We have twelve navy yards and we have spent $110,000,- 000 building and keeping up navy yards according to the state rights principle of distributing the naval appropriations. Five of them haven't the principal thing a navy yard is built for—a dry dock big enough to hold the battle ships we are now completing. Two of them have one fine dock apiece, which no battleship can reach at any time; and three of them own one costly dock apiece, cut off from the sea by shoal waters, which battleships can only cross at certain times in the tide; and which, if they were waterlogged in time of war, they could not cross at all."Since a fleet cannot separate in time of war, nor lay outside a harbor waiting for a tide, this means that in case of war the United States has no place in which to repair her ships.Turner says the only docks needed on the Atlantic coast are at New York, Norfolk and Guantanamo, Cuba, key to the Panama canal; and from Maine to Louisiana navy yards are built against the protest of naval men,
and upon the insistence of senators.
Speaker Cannon will not appoint to his naval affairs committee, congressmen residing in seaboard states, so Senator Hale and his colleagues divide the spoils. Figures show that navy yards which cost $5,000 to $10,- 000 worth of work in a year are maintained at the expense of hundreds of thousands of dollars with an additional $50,000 apiece for military protection. Navy officers say the country could save $40,000,000 annually by closing nine of the navy yards.The reason for this waste is not far to seek. Senators represent states, and congressmen districts, instead of the United States. The senators are seeking to secure navy yards for their states so that the wages of the men employed in them may be spent there.We expect our congressman to get his share of appropriations for our district, and we shall, of course, expect Senator Bradley to see to it that Kentucky comes in for her share.
Graft is not in the federal government; it is in the heart of every American citizen.A CRY OF DISTRESS HEARD 200 MILES.The instruments attached to the wireless stations on steamboats vessels for 200 miles around Nantucket ticked off laconically the message that the liner Republic was rammed amidship and was about to sink with all on board, and five minutes later, every ship, which received the message, was on her way to the point designated. The vessel sank last night, but every soul had been rescued. It was a marvellous demonstration of the value of man's mastery of the elements, when that cry of distress came through the ether.
A startled scream of terror strikes a responding tremor in the heart of the hearer, but what must have been the sensation of the telegraph operators on the ships when their instruments began clicking off that weird message?SOME STORIES AROUND TOWNIt has been nearly twelve years since any one has been sentenced to death in the McCracken county court house until two weeks ago when George Freeman and Jonas Smith, both colored, were sentenced to hang.
The seriousness of the death sentence can never be told except by those who have been there, although despite the seriousness there is at times a bit of comedy in the sentencing. Whenever the judge asks the prisoner if he has any legal reason why he should not be hung almost invariably there is some answer given, although it is rarely legal, and of course the judge passes the sentence the same as if the quaking prisoner had not spoken.County Judge R. T. Lightfoot tells the good story of an old German, who was sentenced to be hanged in one of the counties in Illinois. The man was a big, strapping fellow, ignorant, but with the blunt humor of his country. He had committed a brutal murder, and on his first trial a verdict of death had been returned. Finally the murderer must hang by his neck until dead, dead, dead, and then he asked the German if he had anything to say.A few moments of absolute silence passed when the old German shook his huge frame, and said: "I shoud kant stand hit." Nothing more was said, but the pitiful manner in which he repeated the broken English stirred everyone in the court room. A paper was gotten up asking the government to commute the sentence of death
to life imprisonment, and the judge, sheriff and jury signed the paper. In a few weeks the judge had the pleasure of commencing the sentence to life imprisonment, and he appeared happy, for that simple statement of the German had made the judge his fast friend.The vault in the circuit clerk's office at the court house is one of the best places to hear stories in the city.
It is in here that all of the attorneys when not busy with some case ortrial, lounge and enjoy a smoke. In the vault they are within a few paces of the court room, and make it a club while the court is in session, for the smoking is forbidden in the court room. While enjoying puffs at a cigar or pipe some of the most astute lawyers join in the fun.

Dissolution, Distillation.

A man who had made his fortune in the west returned to his boyhood home in Ohio to spend it."What's become of John Falvey?"
he asked of some old friends he met at the hotel."Oh, he's dead. Drank himself to death. We buried him two years ago.""Well, I declare. So old John is gone. And where is Jim Robinson?" Is he dead, too?"Oh, yes; he buried him three years ago. He drank himself to death, too."—"You don't tell me. And where is old Peter Mearean? Has he passed over?""Yes," said one of the home folks.
"Old Peter has been gone about a year."—"You buried him a year ago.
Well, well—""Oh, no," was the reply. "We didn't bother to bury him. We just poured him back into the barrel."—

Natural History.

A certain father who is fond of putting his boys through natural history examinations is often surprised by their mental agility. He recently asked them to tell him "what animal is satisfied with the least nourishment." "The moth!" one of them shouted confidently. "It eats nothing but holes."—Youth's Companion.Sophy of

In the end they started thirty strong, including Sophy herself. A There were the three Englishmen—Dun-stanbury, Basil Williamson and Henry Brown, Dunstanbury's servant,
an old soldier, a good rider and shot.
The rest were sturdy young men of Volens, once destined for the ranks of the Prince of Slavna's artillery. Luko-vitch and Peter Vassip led them. Not a married man was among them, for,
to his intense indignation, Zerkovitch was left behind in command of the city. Sophy would have this so, and nothing would move her. She would not risk causing Marie Zerkovitch to weep more and to harbor fresh fears of her. So they rode "without incumbrances," as Dunstanbury said, laughing. His spirits rose inexpressibly as the moment of action came.Their horses were all that could be mustered in Volens of a mettlesome dash. The little band paraded in the market place on Friday afternoon. There they were joined by So-phy, who had been to pay a last visit to monseigneur's grave. She came among them sad, yet seeming more serene. Her spirit was the happier for striking a blow in monseigneur's name.
The rest of them were in high feather.
The prospect of the expedition went far to blot out the tragedy of the past and to veil the threatening face of the future. As dusk fell they rode out of the city gate.Miklevil lies twenty miles up the course of the river from Slavna, but the river flows there nearly from north to south, turning to the east only four or five miles above the capital. You ride, then, from Volens to Miklevil almost in a straight line, leaving Slavna away on the left. It is a distance of no more than thirty-five miles or thereabouts, but the first ten consist of a precipitous and rugged descent by a bridle path from the hills to the valley of the Krath. No pace beyond a walk was possible at any point here, and for the greater part of the way it was necessary to lead the horses. When once the plain was reached there was good going, sometimes over country roads, sometimes over grass, to Miklevil.It was plain that the expedition could easily be intercepted by a force issuing from Slavna and placing itself astride the route; but, then, they did not expect a force to issue from Slavna. That would be done only by the orders of General Stenovic, and Le-page had gone back to Slavna to tell the general that his message was being considered—very carefully considered—in Volens. General Stenovic, if they understood him rightly, would not move till he heard more. For the rest risks must be run. If all went well, they hoped to reach Miklevil before dawn on Saturday. There they were to lie in wait for Stafnitz and for the big guns which were coming down the Krath from Kolskol to Slavna.Lukovitch was the guide and had no lack of counsel from lads who knew the hills as well as their sweethearts' faces. He rode first, and while they were on the bridge path, they followed in single file, walking their horses or leading them. Sophy and Dunstanbury rode behind, with Basil Williamson and Henry Brown just in front of them. In advance, some hundreds of yards, Peter Vassip acted as scout, coming back from time to time to advise Lukovitch that the way was clear.
The night fell fine and fresh, but it was very dark. That did not matter.
The men of Volens were like cats for seeing in the dark.The first ten miles passed slowly and tediously, but without mistake or mishap. They halted on the edge of the plain an hour before midnight and took rest and food. Each man carried provision for two days. Behind them now rose the steep hills whence they had come, before them stretched the wide plain, away from their left was Slavna, straight ahead Miklevil, the goal of their pilgrimage. Lukovitch moved about, seeing that every man gave heed to his horse and had his equipment and his weapons in good order.
Then came the word to remount, and between 12 and 1, with a cheer hastily suppressed, the troop set forth at a good trot over the level ground. Now Williamson and Henry Brown fell to the rear with three or four Volensmen lest by any chance or accident Sophy should lose or be cut off from the main body. Lukovitch and Peter Vassip rode together at the head.To Dunstanbury that ride by night through the spreading plain was wonderful, a thing sufficient in itself without regard to its object or its issue.
He had seen some service before, and there was the joy of that. He had known the comradeship of a bold enterprise; there was the exaltation of that. He had taken great risks before; there was the excitement of that. The night had ere now called him to the saddle, and it called now with all its fascination. His blood tingled and burned with all these things. But there was more. Beside him all the way was the figure of Sophy dim in the darkness and the dim silhouette of her face—dim, yet, as it seemed, hardly blurred; its pallor stood out even in the night. She engrossed his thoughts and spurred his speculations.What thoughts dwell in her? Did she ride to death and was it a death she herself courted? If so, he was sworn in his soul to thwart her, even to his own death. She was not foodfor death, his soul cried, passionately protesting against that loss, that impoverishment of the world. Why had they let her come? She was not a woman of whom that could be asked,
therefore it was that his mind so hung on her with an attraction, a fascination, an overbearing curiosity. The men of Volens seemed to think it natural that she should come. They knew her, then, better than he did!Save for the exchange of a few words now and then about the road they had not talked. He had respected her silence. But she spoke now and,
to his great pleasure, less sadly than he had expected. Her tone was light and witnessed to a whimsical enjoyment which not even memory could altogether quench."This is my first war, Lord Dun-stanbury," she said. "The first time I've taken the field in person at the head of my men!""Yes, your majesty's first campaign.
May it be glorious!" he answered, suiting his tone to hers."My first and my last, I suppose.
Well, I could hardly have looked to have even one—in those old days you know of—could I?""Frankly, I never expected to hold my commission as an army officer from"This is my first war, Lord Dunstanbury," she said.you," he laughed. "As it is I'm breaking all the laws in the world, I suppose. Perhaps they'll never hear of it in England, though.""Where there are no laws left you can break none," she said. "There are none left in Kravonia now. There's but one crime, to be weak, and but one penalty, death.""Neither the crime nor the penalty for us tonight!" he cried gayly. "Queen Sophy's star shines tonight!""Can you see it?" she asked, touching her cheek a moment."No, I can't," he laughed. "I forget; I spoke metaphorically.""When people speak of my star, I always think of this. So my star shines tonight? Yes, I think so—shines brilliantly before it sets! I wonder if Kravonia's star, too, will have a setting soon—a stormy setting!""Well, we're not helping to make it more tranquil," said Dunstanbury.

Delightful Parties Way Down in Georgia.

The Times, of Thomasville, Ga., contains the following notices of social affairs in honor of popular Paducah girls:

"Monday evening Mr. James S. Hopkins entertained at a dinner party at the Elks' club for Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Montgomery, Jr., and their guests, Misses Roberts, Asher and Winstead. The grill room of the club was used for the occasion and it was beautifully arranged especially for this dinner. The room was strung with streamers of ivy, coming from each corner of the room to the center of the table and from the end of this below the chandelier was hung a beautiful bunch of white roses. Immediately below as a centerpiece was a large bunch of Duches roses, around which at the four corners were glass candle sticks with pink candles and shades. Over the whole scene from the electric lights above, a soft glow was shed from pink shades. At the conclusion of the dinner the whole party were shown to the ball room of the club and for an hour an informal dance was held."

"A very congenial party of the young people of Thomasville were guests of Mr. W. J. Hammond, at the old homestead of Uncle Frank Jones, about five miles from town, Wednesday evening. During the evening a very delicious egg-nog and club supper was served. Later in the evening the negro orchestra from town came out and the old-fashioned dances were enjoyed until 10 o'clock, when the crowd repaired to town, each one sure of the fact that this was one of the most delightful affairs ever given at the old place. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Montgomery, Jr., Misses Corinne Winstead, Willie Blanche Asher, Mary Louise Roberts, Lucy Waters, Eva Gardner, Marianne Watt, and Messrs. W. I. MacIntyre, J. A. Mitchell, W. J. Hammond, Arthur Little, John Watt, Will and Jim Hopkins, B. H. Ingram and E. R. Jerger."

Laevison-Blum.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blum, of Nashville, Tenn., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Pearl, to Mr. Joseph D. Laevison, of Paducah, Ky. The marriage will be very quietly solemnized Tuesday afternoon, January 26, at the home of Mr. David Lowenheim, of the Harding road.

Englert-Willett Marriage at St. John.
Miss Blanche Englert and Mr. Gordon Willett, of St. John's, will be married Tuesday morning at the St. John church. The Rev. Father Rhinehart will perform the ceremony. It will be a quiet wedding. Miss Ethel Englert, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Englert, a brother of the bridegroom, will be the attendants.

Cumberland Presbyterian.
The revival services at the Cumberland Presbyterian church were brought to a close Sunday evening, one conversion and two additions being the visible result of the seven days' work. Rev. O. A. Barbee, the evangelist, of Greenville, Ky., who was in charge, was called away on more important duties and it was thought best to close the meeting in order to keep from overtaxing the pastor, Rev. D. W. Hooks. At the close of the service Sunday evening several went forward for the prayers of the Christians and much feeling was in evidence. At 6 o'clock before the evening service Rev. Barbee organized a Christian Endeavor society and appointed a nominating committee. Regular meeting time for the society was set for 6:30 p. m. each Sunday, and at the next meeting the officers will be chosen as nominated.

First Presbyterian.

"Sowing and Reaping" was the subject of an interesting and instructive sermon by the Rev. W. E. Cave at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Sowing, assiduously and earnestly in faith, Dr. Cave said, was necessary to a good harvest. There were four additions to the church.

Broadway Methodist.

At the Broadway Methodist church Sunday morning, the pulpit was filled by the Rev. Dr. Schuler, of Nashville, Tenn., the editor of the Midland Methodist. Dr. Schuler made a most pleasant impression on the large congregation who heard him. His sermon was a strong and eloquent exposition of "The Fact of Death and the Agencies to Counteract Its Results." He splendidly stressed the idea that death is not the end of all things; that our ambitions not realized here will be achieved in another world. It was forcible, optimistic and helpful, the kind of sermon calculated to inspire and cheer work-a-day humanity.

There were five additions to the church yesterday morning and one application for membership who will be received on Wednesday night.

The Sunday school of the Broadway Methodist church made a fine showing yesterday morning. There were 103 pupils present in the primary department alone. Mrs. C. H. Phillips is primary superintendent and is working along live and up-to-date Sunday school methods. She has ten teachers under her. The entire corps of 40 teachers and officers were present yesterday morning. Mr. John D. Smith is the capable and energetic superintendent of the Broadway Sunday school.

The prayer service on Wednesday evening at the Broadway Methodist church will be under the auspices of the Laymen's Movement of the church. Each of the ten keymen of this movement is pledged to bring at least three men to the service. Dr. Sullivan will conduct the services.

Fountain Avenue.

Large congregations were at the Fountain Avenue Methodist church Sunday to hear the Rev. E. B. Ramsey of Memphis, Tenn., who is conducting the revival there. Dr. Ramsey is a strong evangelist and his sermons yesterday were practical and soul-searching. There were two additions to the church at the morning service. Deep interest is being manifested. The services will continue all the week. Dr. Ramsey will preach tonight at 7:30. Prof. Sturgis, who has been conducting the singing at the First Christian church revival, will remain over this week and have charge of the singing at Fountain Avenue.

A MOTHER'S PLEA.

Trained Nurse Offers Cure for Constipation.

"What in the world can I do for my three children, who, it seems, have inherited costiveness and all the evils, such as vomiting, stomachache, headaches, dullness, languor, fever and thinness of flesh? I have tried dieting and breakfast foods, fruits and patent medicines; but the trouble grows worse and I am nearly distracted."

This mother voices the experience of thousands.

A trained nurse and well-known matron of one of our largest eastern hospitals offers the following as the best and most reliable harmless remedy that is known:

Just go to any well-stocked drug store and get "one ounce aromatic fluid cascara," "one ounce compound essence cascara," and "two ounces aromatic syrup rhubarb." Mix all in a bottle, shake, and adults take from 1/2 to 2 teaspoonfuls after each meal, while children gleefully take from five drops to a teaspoonful, according to age. Use this freely whenever occasion demands.

CUBA PROSPEROUS AND PEACEFUL

Says Provisional Governor
Magoon in Report.

Cost Over $5,000,000 to Rescue Island From Insurrection—Great Improvements.

WEATHER CAUSES TROUBLE

Washington, Jan. 25.—In his second annual report for the year ending December, 1908, to the secretary of war made public today, Charles E. Magoon, governor of the provisional administration of the government of Cuba which will come to an end with the inauguration of President Jose Miguel Gomez next Thursday, states that the provisional government of Cuba has proceeded satisfactorily during the past year. During the two and one-half years' existence there has been a condition of peace and tranquility in the island that is creditable to the highest degree. All of the laws which the peace commission of 1906 deemed indispensable have been either enacted or are now so far advanced in process of enactment that they will become laws before the termination of the present government. In addition many other laws essential to the welfare of Cuba have been enacted. During the past year two important elections have taken place, namely the municipal and provincial election and the national election, both of which were conducted without confusion or disorder.

The expenditure made by the United States for the intervention and the extra cost of the army of Cuban pacification maintained in the island during the existence of the provisional government amounted on June 30, 1908, to $5,311,822, and this amount will be materially increased before the termination of the provisional government and will be further increased by the withdrawal and distribution of the troops now in Cuba.

Cause of Trouble.

Climatic conditions in Cuba have caused an industrial development which annually produces the labor crisis which is of great concern. During the six months of the dry season Cuba is a hive of tremendous industrial activity. There are not enough resident laborers to supply the demand. The want is met by laborers coming from the other islands of the East Indies, the Canary Islands, Spain, Italy and other European countries. A large majority of these transients return home at the close of the season, taking with them the money they have earned and saved. This annual drain is a serious disadvantage to Cuba. The advent of the rainy season terminates this industrial activity. The field hands are discharged, and many thousands of men are out of work.

The danger of this annual industrial inactivity in Cuba was increased during the last two years by reason of unfavorable market conditions at home and unfavorable market conditions abroad. The climatic conditions for the past two years have been ideal and the product is the best in every way for many years. The sugar industry suffered also during those two years, from climatic conditions and financial disturbances. The cattle industry,

"SOCIAL WHIRL"

With Coffee-Insomnia and Collapse.

It seems difficult for some of us to be good all of the time, but it pays, after all.

Even a model school teacher, on a vacation, may drop into excesses in the way of overeating, late hours and black coffee to add to the irritation of the nervous system.

"I am a teacher in the University," writes a lady in Salt Lake City, "and hold a responsible and trying position. For months before my collapse, I rose completely devitalized, but braced up on a cup of coffee."

"The summer vacation I spent in the east, where I participated in a whirl of social affairs. There was scarcely an evening when I did not drink strong coffee and afterwards spent hours awake."

"Finally the break-down came and I have spent hundreds of dollars and almost two years of suffering trying to mend it."

"Every doctor I had insisted on my giving up coffee. I tried Postum, not prepared, at first, as it ought to be, and I did not care for it. Since getting it right I have found it wonderfully beneficial."

"The benefits derived from Postum the past year have been gradual but sure. The effect on my stomach was immediate. It was the only thing except the white of egg that did not distress me."

"There is no doubt that coffee is injurious to many even in small quantities. To one who will make the trial, there is no doubt that Postum is decidedly beneficial and a delicious drink if made according to directions on package."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

MORE PINKHAM CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Camden, N. J.—"It is with pleasure that I add my testimonial to your already long list—hoping that it may induce others to avail themselves of this valuable medicine."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered from terrible headaches, pain in my back and right side, was tired and nervous, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health and made me feel like a new person, and it shall always have my praise."

—Mrs. W. P. VALENTINE, 902 Lincoln Avenue, Camden, N. J.
"I was a great sufferer from a female disease. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months."

—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Me.
Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ailments, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

The third important industry of the island, has been in an unsatisfactory condition, but there is now fair prospect of substantial improvement.

People Have Been Patient.

The serious difficulty with which the commerce and industries of the island were obliged to contend has been the enforced liquidation of private indebtedness. Two things have been surprising—the fortitude and good nature with which the Cubans have borne these ills; and the small number of forced sales of property that has taken place. The signs that this period of depression has come to an end are numerous and incontestable.

Seven Years of Proof.

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V. Henry, of Panama, Mo. "The world has had thirty-eight years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, in gripe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

FOR EDUCATION

DR. CROSSFIELD, OF TRANSYLVANIA, MAKES PLEA.

Great Crowd Hears Him Speak at the Broadway Methodist Church Sunday Afternoon.

More than 800 people heard Dr. Crossfield, president of Transylvania university, lecture at the Broadway Methodist church yesterday afternoon on "Ideals in Education." Besides the chorus choir, Mrs. Lela Wade Lewis and Professor Sturgis sang beautiful solos. Professor Carnegie presided and the speaker was introduced by Dr. M. E. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist church. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. C. E. Jackson, pastor of the Tenth Street Christian church.

Dr. Crossfield's address was a plea for more general education. His remarks were directed to parents, urging them to liberally educate their children; by all means to send them through the common and High schools, and if possible give them college training.

A Wise Rustic.

Once a denizen of the up-state regions, where whiskers grow in plenty and umbrellas bulge at will, decided to visit New York. But he decided to visit the bewildering metropolis quite as a man of the world—not to be taken in by the wicked men, who, as he understood, made a business of deceiving the guileless up-stater. Hence he arrived at the Grand Central looking very, very wise, and proceeded, first of all, to visit the collection of wax figures at the Eden Musee. He was engaged in looking critically at one of the most lifelike groups on exhibition there, when a policeman suddenly plucked him by the sleeve. The up-stater turned.

"You mustn't smoke here," said the policeman, severely. A look of wisdom beyond the power of words to describe came over that up-stater's face. Continuing brazenly to smoke, he remarked: "Tut, tut. Don't you think I know you're made of wax?" —Exchange.

GLASS PLANT

SOLD SATURDAY AFTERNOON TO W. F. PAXTON.

Only Two Bidders and Ground and Plant Brought $8,500—Bankrupt Sale.

Pursuant to the orders of the court the plant of the Paducah Glass company in Mechanicsburg, was sold Saturday afternoon by Trustee A. J. Decker at public auction. There was little interest in the sale and there were only two bidders. The plant was sold as a whole to Mr. W. F. Paxton, president of the Citizens Savings bank, for $8,500. Mr. Will H. Farley was the other bidder. It is not known what will be done with the plant.

The auction was attended by a handful of persons, who wanted to see how the sale went. The real estate was offered for sale first and W. F. Paxton purchased it with a bid of $8,000. The machinery, miscellaneous material on hand, and a tank of glass brought $150 when offered separately. After the piecemeal sale, the plant was offered for sale as a whole, and Mr. Paxton purchased it.

How is Your Digestion?

Mrs. Mary Dowling of No. 228 8th Ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratified for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market today." This great tonic and alternative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c at all druggists.

How It Feels to Be Shot.

Mr. Heney said that when the attempt on his life was made, and the bullet struck him, he experienced a peculiar sensation. "I first thought the building had collapsed," continued the doughty lawyer. "I felt myself upon the verge of fainting, but I pulled myself together, and then I felt as if somebody had struck me in the face."

"Involuntarily I put my hand to my face, and seeing the blood flowing freely, I demanded to know who struck me. I was angry and wanted to get at him, whoever he was."

"Some one told me that I had been shot and that Foley had arrested my assailant. Foley was my bodyguard. I was easier when I was told that the man who had fired the shot had been arrested. I feared that if he were still at large he might finish me." —Washington Herald.

"Well! Well! Is this Uncle Charlie Seaver?" greeted the city visitor.

"I'm glad to see you, and hope to have a pleasant ride out to the farm in your old buckboard behind the bay team. If there is anything I have counted on, it is the pleasure of a ride over these mountain roads on the farm buckboard behind the old team."

"Er—yes, this is Uncle Charlie Seaver, though I ain't nowise an uncle yet," drawled "Uncle Charlie," as he crushed the city visitor's fingers in his horny hand. "Glad you come. You'll have a good time. I'm sorry, though, to disappoint ye fust off about that buckboard, but I think you'll find this 40-horse-power car pretty comfortable. More students were excused from examinations this semester than since the method of excusing pupils who attain a certain per cent has been inaugurated. In the high school about 20 per cent of the students were excused, and more accurately 30 students were excused from every examination out of the 100 who attend the school regularly. While there are no reports on which to base an estimate, Superintendent J. A. Carnegie estimates that the per cent will run as high in the grades as in the high school.

Nearly every student was excused from taking the examination in one or more subjects. Since adopted the plan has stimulated the students to better work, and has practically eliminated the drone in the school. Superintendent Carnegie was pleased with the showing, and said that the method has given satisfaction in every grade, and he felt like the benefits would increase.

The students in the high school excused from all examinations due to high per cents were: Jessie Acker, Stella Anderson, Ruby Bressie, Helen Burkholder, Margaret Carnegie, Julia Dahney, Ina Darnell, Pauline Eaker, Marjorie Flegle, Annabel Grainger, Pauline Hank, Hattie Hazotte, Ola Johnson, Lola Kelly, Mary Kennedy, Ruth Koegel, Ruth McClesney, Edna Mooney, Mildred Piper, Marlam Piper, Ellen Rucker, Nina Savage, Clara Smith, Rebecca Smith, Elsie Speck, Grace Stewart, Lorraine Sutherland, Virginia Warren, Elizabeth Weemer and Jacy Harper.

With Chess, Checker and Whist Club.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULES.

Clubs	W.	P.	Per.

D. A. D.	1	1	500

Foregoing is the official standing of the city basketball league. The officials have decided not to grant a victory to the Chess, Checker and Whist quintet over the five of the D. A. D., but will have the game played off. Several members of the D. A. D. team were sick, and the officials gave the Chess team the game by forfeit, but the officials were appealed to and failed to sustain the forfeit. The decision places the teams in a heap, and cut down the lead of the C. C. & W. team.

Wednesday night the Knights of Columbus and the Chess, Checker and Whist teams will battle, and between halves the D. A. D. team and the Light and Power boys will play. The double-header will prove interesting. Friday a second double-header will be played between the Knights of Columbus and the High school, and the Light and Power and the Elks fives. Frank Davis will be referee; Will Lydon umpire, and Guy Lockwood time-keeper.

REVIVAL CLOSES

MAGNIFICENT MEETING HELD AT FIRST CHRISTIAN.

Dr. Crossfield and Professor Sturgis, Singing Evangelists, Have Done Fine Work.

It was a magnificent crowd that packed every part of the First Christian church last night. Aisles, vestibules, balcony and all available standing room was occupied and scores were turned away for want of room. The singing and the sermon both moved the great congregation as people are seldom moved.

President Crossfield is a great evangelist and a princely man. He preaches the truth in love and presents the great themes of eternity, moment in such a way as to give no offense to sinner or saint and at the same time arouses the consciences of men and moves them to earnestly consider the claims of Jesus. All classes of our people were charmed by the personality of the man and impressed by his sincerity and supreme desire to better their condition.

Professor Sturgis has few, if any, superiors as a soloist and leader of song. His large chorus and his sunbeam choir evidenced the skill of a master leader, and the singing was an inspiration in all the services. Mrs. Burns, the organist of the church, presided at the organ and the piano during the revival and the evangelists say they have never had a better accompanist in any of their revivals.

In switching from one song to another, often requiring instant transposition, there was never a break. Miss Lucile Harth, accompanist for the sunbeam choir, and Robert Bondurant, faithful cornetist at all services, also did excellent work. The meeting lasted just two weeks, and resulted in seventy-four accessions to the church. There were eighteen additions yesterday—eight at the closing service last night. Dr. S. B. Moore, the pastor, baptized a large number of converts at the close of the services.

The official board and members regret that the meeting should close at high tide of interest, but the duties of Dr. Crossfield in the university at Lexington and illness in his family made his return home imperative. Both evangelist and singer will long have a warm place in the hearts of the people of Paducah.

Boat Crew's Gallant Work.

Gallant work of a boat's crew from the revenue cutter Gresham in taking off Captain Seably and a detail of the crew of the Republic who remained on board that vessel almost to the last moment, is spoken of particularly in the wireless dispatches.

The Republic had been towed a short distance by the Gresham, the derelict destroyer Seneca, which had arrived at the scene late in the evening, assisting in the work of towing. Suddenly the Republic was seen to be settling and rapid work on the part of the boat crew of the Gresham was necessary to get the Republic's crew away from the vessel.

Both the Gresham and Seneca proceeded toward Gay Head after the Republic went down.

Fortunate Ending.

The drama of sea which for more than 24 hours has held the attention of the world and which has not been without tragic features, ran through its last sensational scenes with the coming of Sunday's dawn and came to a fortunate, if not happy ending. The ramming of the White Star liner Republic early Saturday by the Italian liner Florida off Nantucket, Mass., has been followed by a series of the most remarkable ocean mishaps on record.

No less than seven liners—the Baltic, New York, Furness, La Lorraine and Lucania and the two crippled ships, Florida and Republic—are figuring in the stirring story. The 442 passengers and some of the members of the crew of the Republic have undergone two transfers on the open sea, the first to the crippled Florida on Saturday morning and again early yesterday to the Baltic which is bringing also the 900 and more passengers from the disabled Florida.

Baltic Takes on Passengers.
With this great human cargo of rescued persons, besides her own list of 930 passengers, the Baltic arrived off Sandy Hook about 11 o'clock last night.

The Florida, her bow rent from the terrific impact with the Republic, is also slowly steering, but under her own steam, for this port, conveyed by the American liner New York.

Shortly after midnight the wireless telegraph, which had apprised the world of the Republic's distress and quickly brought other ships to her aid, flashed the news that two passengers on the Republic had been killed and two others injured.

Four Deaths Reported.

Late in the day another wireless message told of four deaths on board the Florida, either members of the crew or steerage passengers. The identity of these was not made clear.

A message from Captain Ransom of the Baltic gave the names of the dead passengers as Mrs. Eugene Lynch, of Boston, and W. J. Mooney, a banker, of Langdon, North Dakota. The injured are Mrs. M. M. Murphy, wife of the financial agent of the Union Central Life Insurance company, of Grand Forks, N. D., and Eugene Lynch, of Boston.

Baltic Expected.

After the transfer of passengers from the Republic to the Florida, which had no accommodation for 100 and more additions to her already heavy list, Captain Voltoline, of the Italian ship, gave orders to stand by until further help arrived.

An examination of the Florida showed that her cut-water and bow had been crumpled as if she had crashed into a stone wall and her two forward compartments filled with water. The Florida, however, showed no signs of sinking. It was deemed best, therefore, at a late hour to transfer not only the Republic's passengers but all those on board the Florida as well.

Passengers Retr transferred.

Shortly before midnight the re-transfer of passengers from the Florida to the Baltic began. Fortunately the sea was placid.

All night long the transfer of passengers to the Baltic was in progress. There was little alarm among the passengers as they were taken in boats to the Baltic. The transfer, including the Florida's steerage passengers, was completed. As morning advanced the fog lifted and the Republic was picked up. The gored liner seemed to be floating easier and Captain Seably and his boat crew went aboard.

Meanwhile a fleet of salvage tugs had arrived and the American liner New York had taken a position near the Florida while the Anchor liner Furness stood by to render assistance.

NOTICE.

I urgently request all persons indebted to me to make settlement before the first day of May, 1909, as I will after that date bring suit on every unpaid note and account due me. Now your account is to each of you a small matter, while the whole is to me very important. I shall deal with all alike; if you don't pay you may know that you will be sued, whatever your name or color may be. I hate to do this, but I am forced to it in self-defense. If you have not the money and will borrow it to pay me in full by the first day of March, 1909, I will deduct 10 per cent from your account, thereby paying the interest myself. Is this not as fair as any sane man can ask?

A Very Wrong Idea

A Young Man Had It.

A well known young man said the other day: "I would like to start a bank account if I could ever save up enough money to do so." That is the idea a great many people have, that they must have $40 to $80 to start. That is wrong, very wrong. The way to start a bank account is to bring a few dollars to us each salary day and place it in our Savings Department, where it draws 4 per cent interest and you will be surprised how fast it will grow.
